Life in “Iowa by the Sea”: A Brief Study of the 1930 Federal Census as it relates to the lives of Native Americans, Latinos, African Americans and Asian Americans in Long Beach

Terry Reems

Long Beach Community Studies Project

Research Paper Outline

March 3, 2008

I. Introduction
   a. Did Long Beach practice restrictive covenants that enforced residential segregation?

II. Social and Economic Data
   a. Demographic profile
      i. What were the percentages of whites, blacks, Mexicans, Asians at this time?
   b. Occupations
      i. was there a work hierarchy that could be “colorized?”
   c. Property Ownership

III. Immigration and Emigration
   a. Citizenship Status
   b. Birthplace
      i. Where did Long Beach residents come from?
   c. Application Records
IV. Military Service
   a. Enlistment Records
   b. Time Served

V. Gender Data
   a. Any evidence of exogamy or endogamy?

VI. Conclusion
   a. Impact and Response